

Alfred Wong

Position/Department/Division/Institution/Organization

Managing Director of Asia Pacific at Ballard Power Systems Inc.,

Country

Canada / China

Career history

Mr. Alfred Wong is the Managing Director of Asia Pacific at Ballard Power Systems Inc., a global leader in hydrogen fuel cell technology. Now based in Guangzhou, Mr. Wong is responsible for Ballard's overall operations in China and the development of emerging opportunities in rest of Asia. Mr. Wong has been with the company since year 2000, and has held progressive leadership positions in R&D, engineering, sales, business development, and general management. Mr. Wong holds B.A.Sc. and M.Eng. degrees in Mechanical Engineering from the University of British Columbia, a MBA in Management of Technology from Simon Fraser University, and has completed the Senior Executive Leadership Program in Corporate Governance from Stanford University. He has been a licensed Professional Engineer in Canada since 2004.

Areas of expertise

Hydrogen and fuel cell commercialization status

PEM fuel cell technologies for stationary and motive power applications