

Marc Crauwels

Position/Department/Division/Institution/Organization

Vice President of Utility Sales for REstore NV

Country

Belgium

Career history

Marc has a degree in Computer Science and a degree in Mathematics/Actuarial. He started building his career in the financial services industry and later on specialized in the energy and utilities space predominantly focussing on billing and meter data management solutions. At the same time, he has been involved in portfolio management, asset management and asset valorisation for the bigger worldwide utilities companies. He has an extensive background in deploying products for the energy and utilities industry.