

Yves Perrier

Position/Department/Division/Institution/Organization

Chief Executive Officer of Amundi Asset Management

Deputy CEO of Credit Agricole S.A.

Country

France

Career history

Yves Perrier is Chief Executive Officer of Amundi since its creation in 2010 and a member of the Executive Committee of Crédit Agricole since 2003. He is also Head of the Insurance Asset Management and Real Estate activities for Crédit Agricole Group.

He was head of Asset Management, Securities and Investor Services at Crédit Agricole SA since September 2007. In 2009, he led the merger of the asset management activities of Crédit Agricole (CAAM) and Société Générale (SGAM) to create Amundi, of which he was appointed Chief Executive Officer on January 1, 2010. Under his management, Amundi became the European leader in asset management and currently manages € 1.5 trillion.

Previously (2003-2007), he served as Deputy Chief Executive Officer of Calyon (CACIB today) with responsibility for structured finance, brokerage, risk, support functions and international network.

Yves Perrier began his career in audit and consulting. He then joined Société Générale where he held several positions, namely Chief Financial Officer, before moving to Crédit Lyonnais as a member of its Executive Committee with responsibility for finance, risk and audit (1999-2003).

Yves Perrier is also Honorary Chairman of the AFG (Association Française de Gestion Financière).

Born in 1954, Yves Perrier is a graduate of the ESSEC business school and is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA).

Awards/Publications

In 2017, Yves Perrier was honored CEO of the Year by the British magazine Financial News

Yves Perrier is a “Chevalier of the Légion d'Honneur” and recipient of the French National Order of Merit