Panasonic has announced the Environment Vision 2050 in June 2017 and is promoting activities as the whole Group.

Under this Vision, with the objectives of realizing both a better life and a sustainable global environment, as well as creating a society that is made more comfortable by clean energy, we are working to reduce the amount of energy used, at the same time, create and utilize clean energy that exceeds the amount of energy used.

Looking ahead to 2050, Panasonic works toward the creation of energy that exceeds the amount of energy used through various activities.
