

Thelma Krug

Position/Department/Division/Institution/Organization

VICE-CHAIR OF THE INTERGOVERNMENTAL PANEL ON CLIMATE CHANGE - IPCC
SENIOR RESEARCHER AT THE NATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR SPACE RESEARCH (INPE), BRAZIL

Country

BRAZIL

Career history

- Director of the Engineering School, Fundação Valeparaibana de Ensino, São José dos Campos
- Senior Researcher at the National Institute for Space Research
- PhD in Spatial Statistics at the Sheffield University
- Deputy National Secretary at the Secretary for Policies and Programs in Science and Technology, Ministry of Science and Technology
- National Secretary at the Secretary for Climate Change and Environmental Quality, Ministry of the Environment
- Director at the Department for Policies to Combat Deforestation, Ministry of the Environment
- Co-Chair of the Task Force on National Greenhouse Gas Inventories, Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC)
- Vice-Chair of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC)

Awards/Publications

Honor to Merit Franklin Honor Society (USA), BsC in Mathenmatics.

Title of Knight granted by the Ordem do Mérito Cartográfico by the Brazilian Society of Cartography. May 1996.

Award Austrich Mission granted by the Directorate of the Geographical Service. Department of the Army. April 1999.

Medal (High Distinction) - Legião do Mérito from the Brazilian Academy of Military Engineering. February 2002.

Sustainability Award, Globo, 2016

Ordem do Rio Branco, Oficial, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 2017

Areas of expertise

Spatial Statistics; Remote Sensing; Land-use Change; National Greenhouse Gas Inventories