

Peter Jørgensen

Position/Department/Division/Institution/Organization

Vice President, Associated Activities, Energinet

Country

Denmark

Career history

Peter Jørgensen holds a M.Sc. Mech. Eng. and has been employed in the Danish power supply industry for more than 30 years.

Peter Jørgensen has been responsible for planning of the Danish electricity system as well as opening of the electricity market. Peter Jørgensen has represented Denmark in the international TSO organisations Nordel, ETSO and ENTSO-E with respect to both system development and electricity markets.

Peter Jørgensen's current responsibilities include development of the international electricity infrastructure and electricity markets with a focus on integration of variable renewable energy. Peter Jørgensen is in charge of Energinet's international consultancy activities sharing Energinet's experiences globally.

Areas of expertise

Energy system development and operation

Electricity Markets