

Philippe Fonta

Position/Department/Division/Institution/Organization

Founder and CEO

SCRUM-Consult (Sustainability, Corporate Responsibility and Uncertainties Management)

Country

SWITZERLAND – SCRUM Consult, 18 rue de Genève, 1225 CHÊNE-BOURG

Career history

2019 onwards: Founder and CEO of SCRUM Consult – GENEVA (CH)

Provide expert informed advice to private companies, international organisations and proactive leadership platforms in setting up their sustainability strategies and working plans, including implementing the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

2011-2018: Managing Director of WBCSD – Cement Sustainability Initiative (CSI) – GENEVA (CH)

Provide strategic leadership and operational insights to WBCSD energy-intensive projects (cement, tires, smart cities, mobility...), in consistency with the global organisation's vision.

2000-2011: Head of Sustainable Development (SD) – AIRBUS – TOULOUSE (F)

Drive the development of the company's SD strategy, lead the publication of the company's SD report and represent the company in major international forums and standard-setting bodies

1992-2000: Various high-level roles and responsibilities – AIRBUS – TOULOUSE (F)

Awards/Publications

IEA-CSI low-carbon technology roadmap for cement (2018)

<https://webstore.iea.org/technology-roadmap-low-carbon-transition-in-the-cement-industry>

CSI 10-year Progress Report: <http://www.csiprogress2012.org/>

Sustainability reports (Airbus)

Various articles in specialized magazines (cement, aviation...)

Areas of expertise

Sustainability (ISO26000), carbon measurement and verification (accredited Bilan Carbone® in France, Getting the Numbers Rights (GNR) database for CSI), Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), Attested as Corporate Social Responsibility Auditor (AFNOR/Haute Ecole de gestion Geneva), Climate change negotiations (UNFCCC COP events, Clean Energy Ministerial (CEM) meetings...)

