

Annette Stube

Position/Department/Division/Institution/Organization

Head of Sustainability, A.P. Moller - Maersk

Country

Denmark

Career history

2008-today	Maersk Head of Sustainability
1997-2008	Novo Nordisk Director of Sustainability Advisor Corporate Responsibility HR consultant
1995-1997	SOS-International Head of supply chain Eastern Europe/Africa and Head of flying doctors/nurses/psychologists corps
1994	Masters degree in psychology (Organizational Development), Uni. of Copenhagen

Positions of trust

2019-today	Board Vice-Chair, OneThird (Think Tank on Prevention of Food Waste and Food Loss)
2019-today	Member of Advisory Council on Sustainable Finance (FinansDanmark)
2018-today	Board member, VL64 (Leadership network)
2018-today	Member of Expert Network, United Nations Global Compact
2017-today	Social Impact Fellow, Haas School of Business, Univ. of California, Berkeley
2017-2019	Board member, The Global Sustainability Centre Board, The Conference Board
2009-today	Advisor to the Danish Government (Council for Corporate Sustainability and SDGs)
2014-today	Chair, Sustainability Network for Large companies, DI (Danish Conf of Industries)
2014-2016	Board Member, CSR Foundation (CSR Foundation closed in 2016)
2013-today	Adjunct Professor, Copenhagen Business School
2009-today	Chair, CSR Committee, Danish Ship-owners Association

Awards/Publications

Won the Danish award for Best first-time sustainability report and Best Sustainability Report in 2012, 2013, 2014, 2016 and 2018 (FSR) as well as Best Sustainability Report 2014 (Ethical Corporation, London).

Areas of expertise

Corporate sustainability, strategy, organizational development, sustainability communication, stakeholder engagement