

Peter H. Gleick

Position/Department/Division/Institution/Organization

President-emeritus, Pacific Institute for Studies in Development, Environment, and Security

Country

United States

Career history

Deputy Assistant to the Governor of California for Energy and Environment, 1980-82

President, Pacific Institute for Studies in Development, Environment, and Security, 1987-2016

President-emeritus, Pacific Institute for Studies in Development, Environment, and Security

Awards/Publications

2019 Boris Mints Institute Prize

2018 Carl Sagan Prize for Science Popularization

2015 The Leadership and Achievement Award from the Council of Scientific Society Presidents

2013 “Lifetime Achievement Award” from Silicon Valley Water Conservation Awards

2011 Ven Te Chow Award from the International Water Resources Association

2011 United States Water Prize from the US Water Alliance

2009 Csallany Award from the American Water Resources Association

2006 Elected to United States National Academy of Sciences: April 2006.

2005 Elected Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science

2005 Elected IWRA Fellow: October 2005 (International Water Resources Association)

2003 Named MacArthur Foundation Fellow. October 2003

1999 Elected Academician of the International Water Academy, Oslo, Norway. October 1999.

Gleick is the author or editor of many scientific papers and twelve books, including the influential series The World's Water (Island Press), Bottled and Sold: The Story Behind Our Obsession with Bottled Water (Island Press), and A Twenty-First Century U.S. Water Policy (Oxford University Press).

Areas of expertise

Hydrology, climatology, energy/water nexus, water and conflict, climate impacts on water, freshwater sustainability